Symptoms of poisoning may even occur after several hours; therefore medical observation for at least 48 hours after the accident.

personal protective equipment for first aid responders is recommended. (please see section 8)

· After inhalation:

Supply fresh air and to be sure call for a doctor.

In case of unconsciousness place patient stably in side position for transportation.

· After skin contact:

Immediately wash with water and soap and rinse thoroughly.

Take off immediately all contaminated clothing, include underwear and shoes (if necessary).

Rinse thoroughly with plenty of water for at least 20 minutes and take medical advise. If medical advise is needed have products container or label at hand.

- Carcinogenic categories

- Titanium dioxide

- IARC's Monograph No. 93 reports there is sufficient evidence of carcinogenicity in experimental rats exposed to titanium dioxide but inadequate evidence for carcinogenicity in humans and has assigned a Group 2B rating. In addition, the IARC summary concludes, "No significant exposure to titanium dioxide is thought to occur during the use of products in which titanium is bound to other materials, such as paint."

- Quartz.

- No significant exposure to quartz is thought to occur during the use of products in which quartz is bound to other materials, such as resin, and for quantities present in the formula

- Ethylbenzene

- From IARC MONOGRAPHS VOLUME 77/2000

- Human carcinogenicity data

- Two studies of workers potentially exposed to ethylbenzene in a production plant and a styrene polymerization plant were available. In the first study, no excess of cancer incidence was found but the description of methods was insufficient to allow proper evaluation of this finding. In the second study, no cancer mortality excess was observed during the follow-up of 15 years.

- Evaluation

- There is inadequate evidence in humans for the carcinogenicity of ethylbenzene. There is sufficient evidence in experimental animals for the carcinogenicity of ethylbenzene.
